ISTEP+ Parent Network Letters

The Department of Education provides parents access to their students' ISTEP+ scores online. A letter has been mailed home with individual invitation codes for each student. Please use the invitation code to set up an account so you will be able to access your student's scores as soon as they are available. The state is estimating that scores will be available by the end of May. Hard copies of your student's scores will be available in the elementary school office.
