

2017 FALL SEMESTER EXAM SCHEDULE

For Middle School and High School

High School Exams

Blackhawk Christian High School will once again have three days set aside for semester exams, and students will take final semester exams in each appropriate subject. The exams are summative in nature and count as 10% of the student's semester grade. However, not all courses have the 10% value for the semester final. Dual credit courses follow the grading structure described in the college syllabus attached to that specific class, and many electives have been exempted from giving a final due to the nature of the course. The list of those courses is as follows:

- All bands, choirs, and art classes
